HUMOR (hu'mar or hu'mer), n. 1. Ability to see or show the funny or amusing side of things. This is stated in the dictionary as the meaning of humor but you can't comprehend humor by just reading definitions. You must search for humor within people like Gina Nakamura and Jimmy Matsubayashi, because they have a talent that few others possess

And the ballots are in! The two most popular people in Gardena are Mauricio Gutierrez and Ululani Smith. Mauricio is the clean shaven, wellbehaved standout of our Mighty Mohican football team. He is truly the most popular, especially with the girls! Ululani is a two year Varsity Cheerleader and the present captain. She is also the Associated Student Body President and 1984 Homecoming Queen. Both are active in school and can be characterized as outgoing and fun to be with.

Best Looking

Fay Williams Marcus Anderson

Winning the title "Best Looking" is quite an accomplishment and no two deserve it more than Fay Williams and Marcus Anderson. Both happy and flattered that their classmates nominated and voted for them, Fay and Marcus expressed modest replies to the congratulations they received. It is evident that their looks aren't just skin deep; they are just as beautiful inside. Years from now, while flipping through the year book, Marcus and Fay will certainly have something to remember and be proud of.

The moon was full. Butterflies filled the insides of the ecstatic spectators As the thundering of drums signified the beginning of half time

The band played as the drill team, flags, and majorettes began to move Flashes of green and white displayed the fine performance which was taking place

The glitter of the antique cars caught the attention of the mohican spectators. The roaring of the crowd grew in magnitude. As the cars circled the arena, feelings of overwhelming joy filled the hearts of many, as the names of the Homecoming King and Queen were announced by Charles Stewart, our principal

The honors were received by King, Lyndon Earley and Queen, Glulani Smith. By their expressions, we could tell that this would be a moment they would treasure in years to come. As the last of the vintage autos disappeared, the clouds momentarily covered the moon, signifying the end of Homecoming 1984

With poise and charm ... Renee, Martha Stephanie Fave, and wild await anxiously for the announcement of the 1984 Homecoming Queen

This is Kid Mohican recapping tonight's games against the Fremont Pathfinders

Coach Bill Partridge's Mohicans total ly obliterated the Fremont Pathfinders handing Fremont a defeat of 41-7. There was no doubt whatsoever in the minds of the Mohicans that this would be a victorious game. Among the hero's of the day were Demonte Walker with three touchdowns and Lamar Clark who ran for 55 yards and scored from the 17th yard line. Fine performances were also turned in by Sean Wilson, quarter back, Tofill Eteuati, defensive tackle Derrick Pettway, flanker, and Jon Frazier, line backer

Once again, this is Kid Mohican saying "You haven't seen the last of the Mohicans!"

What's next? Asks Steven Hill as he anxiously awaits for his next assignment from Coach Hirayama

Cheerleaders...

Perking up the sad faces, cheering the atheletes on, and still having bundles of fun, cheerleaders jump, kick, and shake to bring out the "Dena Pride in all of us. The cheerleaders put in time and a half preparing for pep rallies and games and do more to motivate the crowd by painting posters, choreographing blood-rushing routines, and practicing long hours which all shines through when they step on stage and start showing their stuff. GHS Cheers are truly Dena's best!!

Speed and accuracy . . . Led by Kay Mochizuki, Gardena's J.V. team sinks another two points, showing that practice does make perfect!

"History in the making" ... During the past few years, the girls' J.V. teams had outstanding seasons. The group of '84-'85 should be added to the list for they had an undefeated record, demolishing each opponent by an average score of 30 points a game. Led by guards Shelley Tabuchi and Kay Mochizuki, the traditional runn ing game kept them unbeatable. Rebounding came from center Luz Castillo. Coach Sandy Onamura proves that "those long hours of practice" really paid off. The J V team has their first play-off game on February 26. Their dominance should bring them to the finals. Good Luck!! GIA Junior Varsity Basketball

"In your face!!" says Lee Ann Goya as she sinks in an outside shot

"Winning isn't everything"... The girls' varsity tearn, coached by Cheryl Nakata, ended their season with a 4-12 record. Led by the outside shooting from senior captain Sue Fukunaga, they were able to make the playoffs. From the long hours of practice to the intensity of those close games, the tearn never seemed to give up. It was hard work and dedication which kept them together. With only 3 graduating seniors, (Sue Fukunaga, Joni Suzuki, and Monica Brown), the majority of the team should be back next year for another "fight to the finish."

FACULTY

Mr. Stewart is a graduate of Verdugo Hills High School and Occidental College While in high school he was in a number of clubs and activities, such as the California Scholarship Federation, band, baseball, basketball, track, and student body president

He enjoys classical music as well as opera. His favorite composers are Mozart and Beethoven. For a pastime he likes to read and exercise. Mr. Stewart has no plans to leave Dena, but he likes to change schools every five or six years

As for academic progress, Mr. Stewart says, "It's hard to say about overall progress, but individually, from a teacher's point of view, most students have good potential."

Moving to the athletic department, he has attended all of the football games and basketball games — and — some baseball and tennis. "Dena has good strong teams and will make it to the playoffs and championships."

Mr. Stewart, hard, at work at his desk, is responsible for all programs and activities in the school. He represents this school in the community and in the Los Angeles. Unified School District. He also represents Gardena High at various organizations and functions, such as, meetings of drug programs and businesses in the area. So you see, Mr. Stewart has a large sized load of responsibilities

Mrs. Hall is a very busy person. She is in charge of stu dent activities and budgets, which includes instructional materials, and cafeteria operations. She also handles the civic center permits, school news, daily bulletins, and textbooks among many other items. If you have ever walked into Mrs. Hall's office during school hours you will realize it is like the General Eisenhower command post on D-day

Mr. Hustler is a very busy person. He is in charge of the I.D. pictures, locker inspection and athletic directing. He also handles security, emergency drills, custodial care and gardening, as well as youth services for the Y.M C.A. So you see, Mr. Hustler has various tasks, and he somehow manages to keep up with all of them

Either directing the drill team, teaching typing classes, part-time attendence dean, or being assistant athletic director, Mrs. Ferby is a big help, not only to the students but also to the faculty.

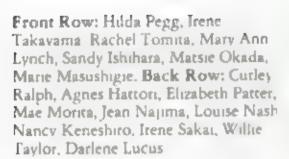

At the start of the day, Mrs. Ferby instructs the drill team, teaching with the energy and spunk Her next task is to teach two continuous classes of typing without absence, she then makes her way to the attendence office, counseling students with excessive absences. Added to her schedule is being the assistant athletic director

Well, not always. Sure, there aren't any assigned seats and you can talk all you want, but each person in this room carries an important responsibility. Each was voted into this class by their fellow classmates. They must plan such activities as pep rallies, noon-time dances, special senior activities, candy sales, and concerts. As Fall Leadership came to an end, many smiles of students seemed o have lost spirit and energy.

One day, while Mrs. Tobin was walking to the moehut, she found a antern and accidentally rubbed it gainst her sweater. A white smoke ppeared in front of her. "Hello, I am Mr. Leadership," said the magical genie. "I will now grant you two vishes to thank you for freeing me rom this lantern." Mrs. Tobin hought for awhile, and then emembered all the unhappy smiles hown by many students

First, she wished for students who vere willing to give their time and deas to brighten the school spirit Second, she wished to have her own lassroom where students can work vith her.

Mrs. Tobin's wishes were sucessfully granted. She was now the eadeship teacher. The class produced many fantastic ideas and worked ery hard to keep the Dena spirit in a igh position. The activities they planned were time consuming and ook a lot of dedication from each tudent Together thei decided to all themselves, "Spring Leadership."

Leading this group of enthusiastic students are two energy-packed and experienced teachers — otherwise known as Mrs. Paddor and Mr Cook. Throughout the years, these two teachers have seen students come and go. But they can be sure of one thing before they leave; each one who leaves the humanities class is left with a special awareness and appreciation of real art and the true meanig of hard work and dedication

LEARNING IN A SPECIAL WAY

DHH, or the Deaf and Hard of Hearing program provides students with many opportunities to participate in school activities and academic programs on the school campus. The students in the program are taught in a special way. Such methods may be lip teading or sign language. The teachers in DHH care and are willing to provide their professional skills to educate the students as much as possible. This program helps Gardena High School to be an educational school for all types of young adults.

Students, Mariling Croucier and Pat Diaz, learn as they watch Mr. Brooke explain math, techniques

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

Busy at work. Mrs. Motovasu and Mrs. Mildner teach their ESL students by a way of using diagrams.

Foreign students who attend Gardena High School enroll in the ESL program. This program teaches students English, and prepares them for three proficiency exams: the Sharp, Write, and Topics. The following teachers, Mrs. Motoyasu, Mrs. Mildner, and Mrs. Camarero, spend each day providing students with help and guidance for their future goals in our society. A year of ESL is an experience in which the teacher and student can learn about each other's culture.

This yearbook was made up of many different things love, sadness, trust. Being the Yearbook Editor was a special privilege for me one that made my senior year at Gardena High School. I will remember only the good times we've shared and will treasure them forever. All the words in the dictionary can't describe the joy I feel in my heart. Remember that I love you all and that dreams can always come true.

THANK YOU:

Mr. Eddy for your understanding and cooperation through all the deadlines, I was indeed lucky to have a Taylor Representative such as you!

MANY THANKS FROM HOWARD NAKASE

There are so many things I would like so say and so many people I would like so thank, that this one page would not be able to hold it all. The three years that I've been here I've learned so many things and made so many friends that I wish I didn't have so leave it all. Though I am glad that I am finally leaving this school by graduating from it, rather than other certain unwanted ways, I am sad that I will have to depart from all my good friends and teachers. The memories that I have shared with all my friends will never be forgotten and cherished in my heart forever. By being head photographer, I was able to take pictures that would help remind us all of the special and memorable times that we've spent here. Here I present to you, with the effort and help of many others, the 1985 EL ARADOR YEAR. BOOK. This is our present to you. Before this message drags on too long, I would like to thank and secognize the following people for their help and support:

Craig Iwata for always being there when I needed you. Guess what buddy, you're Head Photographer and Stadium, Manager next year.

Tins Kato for cheering me up on those down days.

To all the teachers that I've had for the past three years because they always let me out when I needed to take pictures during class.

To my counselor, Mrs. Coffelt, for all the guidance and support she gave me.

To my guidance teacher and coach, Mr. Hirayama, for the career guidance and goal deciding wisdom that he gave ne.

To my best friend Richard Fujio for all the enthusiasm, encouragment, and wisdom that he gave me.

Glenn Wong for being the great boss that you are and the second father to me. I'll miss you when I head for college. You're the best in your field, no doubt about it.

To my family for all the support and love that you've given me and my niece, Justine Mika, for the joy and happiness that you bring me.

Colleen Tani, Darryl Noda, Alan Hamada, Karen Watanabe, Eric Oshiro, and all the other church counselors that supported me and shared their love with me.

God Bless you all and may peace always be with you. Love, Howard

April,

Since I met you, five years ago, you have filled my life with happiness, love, and security. In the past year, we have been growing and building on our relationship. Like a sister, you took me in when I was feeling down. It was during these times that I realized what a good friend I found in you. So, it is my wish that you are successful in all you do in the years to come. If you don't remember anything else about me, please remember that I LOVE YOU.
